

The title "Pride of Japan" is rendered in a white, geometric, wireframe font. The letters are composed of interconnected triangles and squares, giving them a 3D, architectural appearance. The text is set against a blurred background of a restaurant interior, featuring a wooden counter and a vase of colorful flowers (red, orange, and yellow) on the right side.

Pride of Japan

It is with great pleasure that Hirohisa will be collaborative, bi-annual dinner series “Pride of Japan” beginning on the 27th of June 2016.

The dinner series originally began as “Sushi No Kai,” also known as “The Ultimate Omakase ” by well-known Japanese chefs in 2015.

Four renowned chefs will be representing their restaurants and will display their skill. Please read on for more information.

What: A collaborative dinner series “Pride of Japan”

When: Monday, June 27th, 2016

Where: Hirohisa 73 Thompson Street, New York NY. 10012

Chefs for “Pride of Japan” (Name listed in performing order)

Koji Hagihara (Hakata Tonton, West Village)

Kunihide Nakajima (Nakajima at Jado Sushi, Harlem)

Kazuo Yoshida (1 or 8, Williamsburg Brooklyn)

Hirohisa Hayashi (Hirohisa, Soho)

Reservation Policy

There will be 2 seatings. For optimal efficiency, we ask that reservations be of either parties of 2 or 4. We will be taking reservation at 5:30, 6:00, 8:15 and 8:45pm. This incredible omakase experience will be $200 per person at the table, and $250 at the Sushi bar for a more intimate experience. To secure a reservation, valid credit card information is required.

- Drinks, tax and gratuity will not be included.
- Our regular menu is not available on this day.
- Payment information is required.
- No substitution
- No cancellation

Because of the nature of this dinner requiring specific preparation, as per your commitment to the reservation, you will be asked to complete a form to guarantee a payment (no refund).

Reservation by email only : prideofjapannyc@gmail.com